The building blocks of our colleague community...

Anchor builds communities of older people who have the opportunity to live their lives in the way they want. We also build a community of highly committed and talented people who create welcoming, supportive environments where residents can thrive. Our communities are based on our ARCH values, do you have what we're looking for?

Celebrating diversity, celebrating you.

Anchor is proud to be an equal opportunity employer. We aim to celebrate diversity and inclusion in all that we do, as we know that the more diverse our colleague base, the better care and support we can give to our residents and each other.

To ensure we are constantly listening, consulting and learning from experience, we are proud to have an LGBTQ+ resident group for our customers, and also Disability and Neurodivert, LGBTQ+ and race and ethnicity colleague networks. These work closely with the organisation to celebrate diversity, address concerns, review policy and practice and empower our colleagues. We also have an Inclusive Ambassador network to allow all colleagues to be part of promoting diversity and to be an ally to others. We are a member of Inclusive Employers, Mental Health at Work Scheme, a Stonewall Champion and a signatory to the Care Leaver Covenant and HouseProud Pledge schemes.

"I'm a big fan of My Shopping Discounts - I've saved £457.24 so far, mostly on my weekly food shops."

Sandra, Development Advisor

"I received a voucher for a free eye test, and then another £55 voucher towards new glasses!"

Sarah, Estate Manager

What our colleagues say about us.

"I am so proud to be a Home Manager. I am proud to have a job that makes such a difference. I remember my first day ever in care and being worried I wouldn't be able to do it. I skipped all the way home after my first shift and have skipped ever since."

Kristy, Home Manager

"Working for Anchor has been the best decision I've made for my career and for myself personally. I feel like my opinion matters, and the organisation encourages everyone to be the best they can be – whether that is through opportunities to upskill or their strong emphasis on wellbeing. I truly feel at home working for Anchor."

Lauren, Marketing Executive

"After 23 years in the Armed Forces, joining Anchor as a Scheme Manager gave me the opportunity to show and improve my transferable skills. Just like the Military, Anchor has a strong ethos as well as core values that really do matter. As a Scheme Manager no two days are the same, and to be successful you must enjoy and be passionate about making a positive difference, as well as ensuring your Residents really do love living, later in life."

Scott, Scheme Manager

What our residents and relatives say about us.*

"My mum is treated with respect and dignity. All staff ensure residents are made to feel special, they are cared for well ensuring they are dressed and hair done. It has been very difficult this year with no visiting but when I ring I always get the information I ask for and particularly like to see the FaceBook posts with all the activities. The staff have been tremendous through this pandemic and have put residents first. The food has also been excellent and varied. My mum loves her food!!"

Linda, Daughter of Resident

"Montrose Hall is exceptional in its care delivery for clients who have a diagnosis of dementia. From the moment we were introduced to the team and the home we felt immediately at ease that a high-class quality care provision was being delivered in our community. Every member of the care team was polite, friendly, welcoming and emphasised with the tough decision we faced in having to find alternative accommodation for my Grandma. The bedrooms are home from home and staff genuinely care for the residents and clearly treat the residents as one of their own. I would highly recommend this care provision - a gold standard care provider."

Shelley, Granddaughter of Resident

"It is very nerve-wracking to choose somewhere for a frail and vulnerable parent, but I had already heard so many positive things about Millfield from people familiar with the home. And those reports were right. The friendliness of the staff, the way they all introduce themselves and make everyone feel welcome, nothing is too much trouble. The staff should be congratulated for keeping going to such a high standard of care, despite everything that they have all been through these last few months. It's lovely to feel so reassured that our Dad is receiving excellent care."

LC, Daughter of Resident
